- (8) To keep the property insured as required by and under insurance policies approved by, delivered to, and retained by the Government.
- (9) To maintain improvements in good repair and make repairs required by the Government, operate the property in a good and husbandmanlike manner, comply with such farm conservation practices and farm and home management plans as the Government from time to time may prescribe, and not to abandon the property, or cause or permit waste, lessening or impairment of the security covered hereby, or, without the written consent of the Government, cut, remove, or lease any timber, gravel, oil, gas, coal, or other minerals except as may be necessary for ordinary domestic purposes.
- (10) To comply with all laws, ordinances, and regulations affecting the property.
- (11) To pay or reimburse the Government for expenses reasonably necessary or incidental to the protection of the lien and priority hereof and to the enforcement of or the compliance with the provisions hereof and of the note and any supplementary agreement (whether before or after default), including but not limited to costs of evidence of title to any survey of the property, costs of recording this and other instruments, attorneys' fees, trustees' fees, court costs, and expenses of advertising, selling, and conveying the property.
- (12) Neither the property nor any portion thereof or interest therein shall be leased, assigned, sold, transferred, or encumbered, voluntarily or otherwise, without the written consent of the Government. The Government shall have the sole and exclusive rights as mortgagee hereunder, including but not limited to the power to grant consents, partial releases, substitutions, and satisfaction, and no insured holder shall have any right, title or interest in or to the lien or any benefits hereof.
- (13) At all reasonable times the Government and its agents may inspect the property to ascertain whether the covenants and agreements contained herein or in any supplementary agreement are being performed.
- (14) The Government may extend and defer the maturity of and renew and reamortize the debt evidenced by the note or any indebtedness to the Government secured hereby, release from liability to the Government any party so liable thereon, release portions of the property from and subordinate the lien hereof, and waive any other rights hereunder, without affecting the lien or priority hereof or the liability to the Government of Borrower or any other party for payment of the note or indebtedness secured hereby except as specified by the Government in writing.
- (15) If at any time it shall appear to the Government that Borrower may be able to obtain a loan from a private credit association, a Federal land bank, or other responsible cooperative or private credit source at less favorable rates and terms than those for similar purposes and periods of time, Borrower will, upon the Government's request, apply for and accept such loan in full amount to pay the note and any indebtedness secured hereby and to pay for any stock necessary to be purchased in a cooperative lending agency in connection with such loan.
- (16) Default hereunder shall constitute default under any other real estate, or under any personal property, or other, security instrument held or insured by the Government and executed or assumed by Borrower, and default under any such other security instrument shall constitute default hereunder.
- (17) SHOULD DEFAULT occur in the performance or discharge of any obligation secured by this instrument, or should any one of the parties named as Borrower die or be declared an incompetent, a bankrupt, or an insolvent, or make an assignment for the benefit of creditors, the Government at its option, with or without notice, may at once declare the entire amount unpaid under the note and any indebtedness to the Government hereby secured immediately due and payable, to the amount of Borrower's debt and pay reasonable expenses for repair or maintenance of and take possession of, operate or rent the property, or upon application by it and production of this instrument, without notice of hearing or self application, have a receiver appointed for the property, with the usual powers of receivers in like cases, to foreclose this instrument as provided herein or by law, and to enforce any and all other rights and remedies provided herein or by present or future law.

At foreclosure or other sale, if all or any part of the proceeds of the Government's sale are not sufficient to pay and purchase as a stranger and may pay the Government's share of the purchase price, including such amount on any debt of Borrower owing to or insured by the Government, in the order prescribed above.
- (19) Borrower recognizes that, pursuant to Federal law, the Government will, in order to carry out its policy to the State laws, a procedure for valuation, appraisal, exemption or exemption of the property, by providing maintenance of an action for a deficiency judgment or limiting the amount thereof or the time within which such action may be brought, or prescribing any other statute of limitations, (B) allowing any right of redemption or possession following any foreclosure sale, or (C) limiting the conditions under which the Government may by regulation impose, including the interest rate if so changed, as a condition of approving a transfer of the property to a new Borrower, Borrower expressly waives the benefit of any such State law.
- (20) If any part of the loan for which this instrument is given shall be used to finance the purchase, construction or repair of property to be used as an owner-occupied dwelling, hereinafter defined, the Government agrees to sell, or permit the dwelling and has obtained the Government's consent to do so, as herein provided, and the Government will, if the dwelling is sold, offer to purchase a home life offer, refuse to negotiate for the sale or rental of the dwelling or will otherwise have unavailable or less the dwelling to anyone because of race, color, religion, national origin, and sex. Borrower hereby agrees to execute all forms, laws, and regulations which apply with respect to enforce any restrictive covenants in force, and to comply with all applicable laws, rules, and regulations.

- (23) If any provision of this instrument or application hereof in any particular circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity will not affect other provisions or applications of the instrument which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to that end the provisions hereof are declared to be severable.
