Greenville Man Sentenced on Trafficking Methamphetamine and Trafficking Heroin

Thirteenth Circuit Solicitor Walt Wilkins states that Gerald Andrew Toothman, Jr., age 29, was convicted on August 21, 2018 of Trafficking Methamphetamine and Trafficking Heroin. He was sentenced to a term of 15 years incarceration by the Honorable The Honorable Alex Kinlaw, Jr.

Evidence presented at the plea hearing by Assistant Solicitor Walker Miller established that on May 20, 2017, Law Enforcement with the Greenville County Sheriff's Office performed a lawful traffic stop on a vehicle Gerald Andrew Toothman, Jr. was driving. Law Enforcement performed a lawful search of the Defendant's vehicle and found him to be in possession of 2,007.42 grams of Methamphetamine and 4.70 grams of Heroin. Further investigation revealed the Defendant's fingerprints were on the containers the narcotics were being stored in.
