Development of W. Walt Wilkins 2016 Anti-Drug Poster Calendar

In order to publish this calendar, approximately 600 art students from 17 Greenville and Pickens County Middle/Junior High Schools submitted entries. A panel of art teachers and students from Greenville Technical College, Department of Visual and Performing Arts, selected the winners. The grand-prize winner was awarded $150 cash, grade winners received $100 cash and all other finalists were given $50 cash.

This year we are partnering with Greenville Family Partnership in support of the Red Ribbon Campaign. We are happy to be working with them in their efforts to work with parents and teens to stay drug free.

The effort of each student submitting an entry is greatly appreciated and our only regret is that all submitted entries could not be published in the calendar.

This calendar was made possible by these students. Our thanks to each of you for your support of drug-free schools in Greenville and Pickens counties.

A Message From the Solicitor:

Dear Students,

Thank you for the wonderful submissions you prepared for the 2016 Anti-Drug Poster Calendar. Each year, I am amazed at the talent and hard work that you put into your artwork. All of you should be proud of yourselves for your efforts. I hope you realize that you are helping to make a difference in our fight against drugs.

Your participation and commitment to the anti-drug cause makes me hopeful about our present and our future. You will be the future leaders of Greenville and Pickens counties. Your willingness to take part in this campaign at an early age shows that you understand the importance of a drug-free community and want to work to make that community a reality. Thank you for what you're doing now to work toward safe and drug free schools and neighborhoods—setting good examples for your friends and families and making good decisions. I encourage you to continue all of your efforts.

As the Thirteenth Circuit Solicitor, my office and I are committed to making the Upstate drug free. We want you to be a partner with us in that important work. If we can help you, please don't hesitate to contact the office with suggestions, questions or concerns. I look forward to working with you as we fight this battle together. I truly believe that as a team, we can fight drug abuse and keep our community safe and healthy.

W. Walter Wilkins
Solicitor, Thirteenth Judicial Circuit

A Message From Greenville Family Partnership:

Dear Parents,

Red Ribbon Week presents the opportunity for every parent or family member who influences the life of a child to have a conversation about their opinion and perception of drug use both legal and illegal. Research clearly shows that parents are the most important influence in the lives of our children, especially in the formative years. Time is precious to everyone and it is clearly the most valuable gift we can share with our kids. Teachable moments occur every day and if we are sincere and engaged with our children we can learn from them and let them tell us their opinions and attitudes about using or misusing legal and illegal drugs. Spending quality time with your child and talking at different times of the day, either sitting at supper, in the car, bed time has proven to help your child make healthy and safe choices to stay drug and violence free. Believe it or not, your child wants to know what you think, what you care about and you can learn a lot about what they are thinking and feeling.

Please talk with your child often and get to know them and who they are becoming. Never under estimate the value of getting to know their friends and their friend's parents, as they will also play a big role in the life of your child and the decisions they make as they grow older. You, the parent, the care giver, are the constant in your child's life. You have the power to influence them for life. Be smart about the current trends in drug use and let them know how much you love them and how proud you are of them and that they need to make smart decisions in their lives every day.

Thank you for helping to keep our children, our future healthy and drug-free.

Carol A Reeves, Director/CEO, Greenville Family Partnership

Warning Signs:

How can you tell if your child is abusing drugs or alcohol?

There is no single telltale pattern, experts say - especially since the teenage years often produce unpredictable behavior changes. There are, however, some tip-offs that your child may be struggling, including:

- Chronic eye redness, sore throat and/or dry cough.
- Chronic lying or unusual secrecy.
- Trouble in school or with the law, such as stealing.
- Deteriorating relationships with family and friends.
- Wild mood swings, hostility or abusive behavior.
- Chronic fatigue, withdrawal, carelessness about personal hygiene.
- Major changes in eating or sleeping patterns.
- Changes in grades, including increased grades due to misuse of stimulants.

old

If you suspect your child is taking drugs, here's what you can do:

- Do not blame yourself.
- Do not confront a child under the influence of alcohol or another drug, but instead wait until they are sober to discuss your suspicions calmly and objectively.
- Set rules and firm standards and impose consequences when they are broken.
- Seek evaluations from health and medical professionals.
