Civic Organizations / Other Affiliations:

Christian Learning Center of Greenville County Board member for seven years, including chairman for one of those years.

Volunteer Experience (please list and describe):

Christian Learning Center of Greenville County Board member for seven years, including chairman for one of those years.

My interest in serving on the Airport Commission is:

I am a private pilot that utilizes the airport and own property within the airport. I have an interest in seeing the airport continue to grow and prosper to become a vital gateway to Greenville county.

Describe your understanding of the position for which you are applying:

I am a current commissioner whose term is expiring and currently am the chairman of the Commission. The position entails, but exclusively, the following: 1) managing the airport property, including tenants; 2) exploring and understanding economic opportunities and impact of the airport on the business of the airport and county; 3) managing airport development project; and 4) working with the county and city to develop the airport in a collaborative effort for the benefit of all parties.

Describe your strengths or skills that would positively contribute to the Airport Commission:

I have ran a successful law practice in Greenville county for almost twenty years, been members of boards, my law practice concentrates on real estate law that includes leases and tenancies, and I have almost three years now as serving on this Commission giving me insight into the workings and needs of the Commission today.

My community topics of concern that relate to the Airport Commission are:

1. Lack of hangar space. 2. Utilization of the remaining rentable space at the airport. 3) Overseeing current projects at the airport. 4. Exploring and developing opportunities as they are presented to the Commission and Airport for the benefit of the airport and surrounding community.
