My interest in serving on the Historic Preservation Commission is:

My interest in serving on the Historic Preservation Commission is to help drive the efforts to save and recognize Greenville County's historic resources. In my experience, the most valuable commissioners are those who pursue preservation efforts outside of their work with HPC. My work with Upstate Preservation Trust since 2019 has helped me become more effective in my role as commissioner, and I wish to continue.

Describe your understanding of the position for which you are applying:

HPC facilitates the recognition, protection, and preservation of historic resources within Greenville County through special tax assessments, project management, GIS mapping, awarding historic designations, and advocating within county government.

Describe your strengths or skills that would positively contribute to the Historic Preservation Commission:

About half of the seats on the commission have experienced significant turnover the last five years. Because of my previous experience on the commission, I have developed institutional knowledge and a thorough understanding of the commission's function within county government. My professional network of historians, preservationists, and other preservation organizations helps me bring new projects to HPC and have a greater awareness of the preservation needs in our community.
