Volunteer Experience (please list and describe):

I have served on the Board for GCRA for approximately 3 years (1 term). I have served in the role of Treasurer for the past 2 years.

My interest in serving on the Redevelopment Authority is:

I would like to help create more affordable housing for the citizens of Greenville County.

Describe your understanding of the position for which you are applying:

The position would serve as the leadership and provide oversight of the Greenville County Redevelopment Authority to address the issue of providing more affordable housing for the citizens of Greenville County. GCRA manages federal funding provided for Simpsonville, Mauldin, Ft. Inn, Greer, and Travelers Rest. This includes the creation and execution of a five year plan. GCRA also provides funding for sub-recipients who addresses other aspects of homelessness.

Describe your strengths or skills that would positively contribute to the Redevelopment Authority:

My experience as an engineer provides the foundation for me to be able to contribute to the Operations Committee which deals with the construction of homes. My experience as a Manager and budgeting experience allows me to better understand financial statements, investing, and long-term/short-term planning.

My community topics of concern that relate to the Redevelopment Authority are:

Affordable Housing, Homelessness
