Volunteer Experience (please list and describe):

I serve on the board of the Human Relations Commission, the HOA for the Remington Ranch Subdivision in Simpsonville, SC, and previously volunteered with the Alzheimer's Association and Meals on Wheels.

My interest in serving on the Human Relations Commission is:

I am passionate about helping others, giving back to the community, and being a voice for the underserved. I want to continue serving on the Human Relations Commission board because I believe in the organization's mission to improve the quality of life in the County of Greenville by promoting positive community relations and equal opportunity. This mission aligns with my core goals and values as a person.

Describe your understanding of the position for which you are applying:

I understand that it's my responsibility to oversee the strategic direction of the Human Relations Commission, make important decisions, and ensure its financial health. I take my legal and ethical duties seriously, always putting the best interests of Human Relations and its stakeholders first. This means prioritizing the organization's well-being over personal interests and making decisions with care and loyalty.

Describe your strengths or skills that would positively contribute to the Human Relations Commission:

My strengths and skills that would positively contribute to the Human Relations Commission include my passion for helping others and advocating for the underserved, my dedication to community service, my organizational skills, my exceptional attention to detail, and my consistency. These are just a few qualities I can offer to the Human Relations Board.
