My interest in serving on the Museum Commission is:

I have served on the commission for several years and have enjoyed promoting our amazing art museum. The work the museum does to enhance art education, spotlight southeastern artists, and build our local community is valuable and necessary. I enjoy being a small part in their mission.

Describe your understanding of the position for which you are applying:

After serving on the commission for a few years, I understand the position includes approving key financial decisions of the museum, working with the museum staff on direction of the organization, and being a good steward of our resources.

Describe your strengths or skills that would positively contribute to the Museum Commission:

As a landscape architect, my art history knowledge is beneficial. My experience as a native of Greenville who also took art classes as a child at the museum also gives me a unique perspective. As a small business owner, I have a keen awareness of budgeting and other financial needs.

My community topics of concern that relate to the Museum Commission are:

Maintaining a desirable collection that will benefit the surrounding community and being good fiscal stewards of all resources entrusted to the commission.
