My interest in serving on the Board of Tax Assessment Appeals is:

I'm a lifelong resident of Greenville County. Much of my previous volunteer work has been connected to our public school system. Now that my youngest child will soon graduate from the school district, I'm seeking new ways to serve in my community.

Describe your understanding of the position for which you are applying:

The Board hears appeals from Greenville County taxpayers who have concerns about the valuation and tax assessment of their properties.

Describe your strengths or skills that would positively contribute to the Board of Tax Assessment Appeals:

I am organized and pay close attention to details. I'm able to listen to multiple viewpoints and evaluate situations objectively. I also have strong written and oral communication skills.

My community topics of concern that relate to the Board of Tax Assessment Appeals are:

Fairness and equity in assessing property values. Transparency of the appeals process.
